

Photo Release: In consideration for participation in this activity, I give permission for St. Mark's to use any pictures taken of me, my child or my family, and our name(s), in publications including but not limited to bulletins, newsletters, brochures, bulletin boards and website, with or without my/our express permission. I acknowledge that because my/our participation is voluntary, I/we will receive no financial compensation and I/we have no rights of ownership with respect to said images. I, on behalf of myself and all minor children, release and hold harmless St. Mark's, its employees, agents, contractors, and third parties involved in creation or publication of published material from any reasonable expectation of privacy or confidentiality associated with said images, and further release them from liability for any claims I/we might have in connection with my/our participation.
